Re: Release of Information for Scholarship Use

In order to protect your privacy, the Financial Aid Office does not release information regarding your financial aid file without your consent. Many times donors, foundations, faculty, and selection committees request additional information on applicants of specific scholarships. This information could include your GPA, financial need, tax returns, or other information we may have regarding your file.

If you would like this information released as indicated above in order to be considered for additional resources, please sign the release form below:

I, _____, allow Whitworth to release information contained within my financial aid file and registrar's information, to prospective donors, donors, foundations, faculty or selection committees, solely for the purpose of supplying information needed to review my eligibility for scholarship resources. I understand I can revoke this consent in writing at any time.
