4. PRESBYTERIANS

NOTE: Books on Marcus and Narcissa Whitman and their mission at Walla Walla are listed in Section 6 on Congregationalists. While sometimes categorized as Presbyterian, sometimes as Congregational, the Whitmans worked under the auspices of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, an originally and predominantly Congregational agency in which the Presbyterian Church was cooperating at the time. Marcus Whitman's church background included a mix of Congregationalism and Presbyterianism. Narcissa's background was Presbyterian.
