 - i. Mission Statement/Quote – Read by Evan Cate
 - ii. Dorm E-mailing Lists

1. Jeff Hunter: We talked the other day about dorm emailing lists. Alan Jacob will talk with Walt Siedel. The RDs request that you are judicious about using them as it is a privilege and not a right.
- iii. Art in Café – Denise
1. Last year ASWC voted to have a track installed in the Café so that art can be displayed all year round. As it stands now we need someone to run it and make sure that there is art always there. Amy Newton is going to be doing it this year; however will this always be in the job description of the Special Events Coordinator? I think we should have a policy in place so that it will always be taken care of. I have put something together which I have handed out. Basically the purpose is to have art always on display and allow students to enjoy and learn about art. The conditions are listed on the handout. They are what I feel is appropriate, however it is up to you guys as far as what you decide.
 2. Colette Reid: What about if the displays require money?
 3. Denise: There is no room in the art budget for this. It would have to be up to ASWC to fund this.
 4. Daniel Walters: If we are paying for the art, should we not be allowed to censor it and make sure it is tasteful for the students.
 5. Denise: I suggest creating a committee or something of people who you trust who can decide which art to put up. I think it is important that art not be censored so that artists aren't afraid to display what they need to.
 6. Erik Fredriksen: Shouldn't the art uphold the policies of Whitworth?
 7. Denise: I think that since we are trying to expand and challenge our minds, it should not be censored. I feel that this is part of Whitworth's mission.
- b. Executive Vice President
- i. Dorm Updates
 1. Arend: I felt Tradition went really well this year. All of the guys loved it and that it was the best thing ever. I had a few people come up and tell me that they enjoyed the ASWC opening skit a few days ago. I think its cool how much originality there was at Mock Rock. There was a lot of new stuff this year and I thought it was really neat.
 2. B-J: Prime times are getting started; there is a RAP meeting at 8:00 tonight.
 3. Stewart: RAP meeting tonight. Stewart lawn dance is on Friday at 8:00
 4. Warren: First of all, Tradition was incredible this year. Every senator should be a traditiators when they are in the dorms. It is such an opportunity to build bonds with the students. It was really great and I really enjoyed it. I am half pleased to see that the grass signs are down that that people are playing Frisbee in the loop again. The fine for holes, people would like to know what the fine is. People are willing to pay the fine for creating the holes. Also, some students were putting up wireless internet in the dorm. The college is behind many colleges when it comes to wireless internet. They were told that even if they secured their connection, they cannot have wireless internet. They were not told this when they came here. Also, does anyone know where the newspapers are coming here and where they will be?
 5. Ballard: The girls felt like they got skipped over with the wooing. One girl got hit in the face with a water balloon, but all was well.
 6. Boppell: We are going to be involved this year with homecoming and stuff like that. A few students have created a new game for dorms, come borrow it if you would like.
 7. McMillan: Guys had a good time at the yell-off and with other activities. One thing they were upset about was the rude behavior of BJ during mock rock. I felt I was disrespected when they turned their backs to us. I felt it was very irresponsible.
 - a. Erik Fredriksen: I think this would be helped with an apology.
 - b. Dayna Coleman: This act of jumping off the stage affected Amy a lot because of the anger that was caused. There was a lot of anger and resentment.
 - c. Jeff Hunter: This affects everyone.
 - d. Rebecca Bratt: The traditiators have a lot of responsibility with teaching the kids that this is how it is.
 - e. Daniel Walters: I think that rivalries are healthy. I was a little disappointed with the leaving of the BJ men after their presentation. I think the event went very well. The rivalry could continue in a healthy way, but not in a disrespectful manner.

- f. Erik Fredriksen: The BJ guys won't even talk to Mac men if they find out they live there. Why is there such a rivalry?
- g. Jackson Williams: The turning of the back was done by the alums, not the freshmen. We don't teach them this, they simply do it on their own and it will be really hard to stop this.
- h. Andrew Dolan: I was most frustrated that the rules were broke. If you aren't supposed to jump off the stage, then don't do it. I don't care if it is tradition or anything, just simply don't do it. As traditiators, just don't let the students do this.
8. Off-Campus: BBQ is Friday at Holmberg Park. I ordered off campus tee shirts for the first time ever. We will have them for sale at the BBQ.
9. Beyond/Schumacher: The girls really appreciated the bonding and the wooing that went on during the Traditiation.
10. Village: RAP Meeting in Stewart lounge.
- ii. Campus Vibes
 1. Jackson Williams: A lot of the students in BJ were really happy with the Traditiation.
 2. Amanda Smith: I think that Stew-Ville is basically amazing.
 3. Sarah Brogden-Thome: Some students were wondering if the construction will continue to start at 7:00 am each day.
- iii. Media/Coordinator Report
 1. Chad Boyer: Erik and I are trying to get stuff started quickly so we don't have to go too far into the winter. Frisbee signups are due the 11th so we don't have to play in the snow we are trying to get it started earlier. Other signups are due on the 14th. Grass Volleyball tournament on the 24th.
 2. Lara Thompson: I have fliers for bingo night. Please put them in your dorms. This weekend there is a poster sale which starts tomorrow and goes through Friday. Yellow card is coming, we have tickets for 16$ which go on sale at 9:30 tomorrow morning. Please put fliers up in your dorms. Half Past 9 will begin on three Thursdays from now, on Sept. 22. We are bringing in some hypnotist. The email goes out tomorrow for the homecoming schedule. I am also going to pass around a list that Amy gave to me. We need a committee to decorate Quall haul. All execs and coordinators will be walking the Hello walk on the 17th. Senators check your mail boxes up here because Amy is putting stuff in there for homecoming.
 3. Ben Leighton: The radio is doing well. The first class is the 13th in the science theatre. Very soon we will be on the air with Automation.
 4. Aaron Boyles: Coming up we will be starting rentals. We hope to have things very organized so that people know what is going on. Rentals are looking good this year. We are going to be getting a new volleyball net. Other than that, rock climbing will be the 17th I think. A lot of freshmen were asking about it. They will be getting an email soon. Horseback riding will be on the 24th. Both trips will fill up really fast, so sign up quickly.
 5. Amanda Smith: We got last year's book, so if you bought it, I can get it for you in a few minutes. This year's book will be full color and will still cost $40. Please tell everyone to buy the yearbook very soon, the sooner the better. You can pay at the info desk, cash or check. We will be going door to door to sell the yearbooks.
 6. Alise Delzell: On this piece of paper please write down your name and your shirt size so that you will be able to have shirts for CBD.
 7. Collin Storm: Four of our teams are ranked really highly. In about 5 minutes the volleyball team is playing Lewis and Clark State in the field house. Football opens this weekend on Saturday at 12:30.
 8. Peter Smelser: First issue will be on the 20th.
 9. Amy Newton:
 10. Jackson Williams: Senators, you will be receiving this on your box which will be for senior pizza night. There will be free pizza for all seniors.
- iv. One on One's
 1. Colette Reid: One on One signups are going around. Senators and reps meet twice a month and coordinators meet once a month. Please sign up.
- v. 9/11
 1. Colette Reid: Sept 11 is this Sunday. We had discussed a "see you at the campanile", are you still interested in doing this? At 1:00.
