ASSISTANT/ASSOCIATE/FULL PROFESSOR OF MARKETING
SCHOOL OF GLOBAL COMMERCE AND MANAGEMENT
TENURE TRACK
START DATE: JULY 1, 2013

Dr. Tim Wilkinson, Charles L. Bopell Dean of the School of Global Commerce and Management, will be attending the Summer Marketing Educators’ Conference 2012 in Chicago on August 17-19, 2012. If you would like to meet with Dr. Wilkinson at that time, please fill out a Whitworth application and indicate that you will be attending the conference. Qualified applicants will be contacted to arrange an appointment with Dr. Wilkinson during the conference.

Application review begins August 1, 2012. The position remains open and applications will be reviewed until filled.

The School of Global Commerce and Management at Whitworth University invites applications for a tenure-track, Assistant/Associate/Full Professor of Marketing. A Ph.D. in marketing or a related field is required (ABD’s will be considered) and, depending on rank, a commensurate record of quality research and publications in the marketing field. Consideration for appointment to the rank of Associate Professor will be considered for applicants who have served for five years at the rank of Assistant Professor at a four-year accredited academic institution; possess both a record of scholarly research as evidenced by an ongoing stream of research that results in quality refereed journal publications, and a proven record of exceptional teaching. Consideration for appointment to the rank of Full professor will be considered for applicants who have served for five years at the rank of Associate professor and have an extensive research record.

THE INSTITUTION:
Founded in 1890, Whitworth has been consistently ranked among the top regional colleges and universities in the West. Whitworth combines a strong liberal arts perspective, the Christian heritage of the University, its commitment to academic rigor, and its long-standing orientation toward human service. A community of Christian scholars carries out the university’s mission “to provide its diverse student body an education of the mind and heart.”

THE SCHOOL:
Whitworth’s School of Global Commerce and Management (SGCM) is in the process of pursuing AACSB accreditation and is recruiting scholars who can contribute to this effort. The SGCM is committed to providing its students with an outstanding business and economics education. Small class sizes combined with close interaction between students and faculty enable our graduates to learn the essential professional skills and knowledge to successfully compete for positions in today’s high velocity global marketplace. The undergraduate degree program is the one of the largest on campus with an estimated 16% of all Whitworth students choosing to major in business and economics areas. The school offers both a traditional undergraduate degree in business and economics with majors in accounting, economics, international business, management, and marketing, and a unique undergraduate degree completion program in organizational management. The graduate program provides an excellent Master of Business Administration (MBA) and a Master in International Management (MIM) degrees.
FACULTY RESPONSIBILITIES:
In addition to being active scholars, applicants should be committed to the cultivation of superior teaching skills in marketing courses at both the undergraduate and graduate levels and should have the ability and willingness to teach a variety of marketing courses. An interest in interdisciplinary research and co-authorship with SGCM colleagues is valued and associate and full professors are expected to mentor junior faculty members. Applicants are expected to actively participate in important university, school and departmental support and service responsibilities (e.g., faculty governance, mentoring, development, and student advising). Collegiality is valued and the ability to get along with other people is required.

QUALIFICATIONS, SKILLS AND ABILITIES:
- A Ph.D. or D.B.A. degree in marketing or a related field. Applicants that are ABD will be considered for the position if they are currently in the process of completing their doctoral degree and have a definite completion date before August 2013.
- Must be AQ in marketing.
- Demonstrated effectiveness in college-level undergraduate and graduate teaching, possessing strong relational skills with students and colleagues.
- Evidence of scholarly activity and an on-going stream of research in the field of marketing.
- A personal commitment to the Christian faith and to the integration of faith and learning.
- Must be able to communicate effectively in English.
- The ability and desire to establish a positive relationship with persons regardless of race, gender, physical limitation or religious belief.
- Must meet eligibility requirements to work in the United States by the time the appointment is scheduled to begin and continue to work legally for the proposed term of employment.
- A commitment to the educational mission of Whitworth as a Christian liberal arts university affiliated with the Presbyterian Church (USA).
- Background check and education verification required.

APPLICATION PROCESS:
Please submit the following application documents:
1. A letter of interest that relates your education and experience to the required qualifications of the position
2. Your curriculum vitae
3. The names, addresses, telephone numbers and email addresses of three or more references
4. Your graduate and undergraduate transcripts (may be unofficial; official transcripts will be required at the time an offer to interview is extended)
