Independent Auditors' Report

To the Board of Trustees of
Whitworth University
Spokane, Washington

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Whitworth University and subsidiaries (the University), which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as of June 30, 2020 and 2019, and the related consolidated statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Whitworth University and subsidiaries as of June 30, 2020 and 2019, and the changes in their net assets and their cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS As of and for the Years Ended June 30, 2020 and 2019 (in thousands of dollars)

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

---

Whitworth University, a higher education institution founded in 1890, was incorporated in 1972 as a tax-exempt charitable organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is located in Spokane, Washington. Whitworth University's primary source of revenue comes from tuition. Other sources of revenue include room and board, gifts, and investment earnings. The financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting. The more significant accounting policies are summarized below:

Consolidation - The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Whitworth University, Whitworth Costa Rica Limited, and The Whitworth Foundation (the Foundation), collectively referred to as the University. The purpose of Whitworth Costa Rica Limited is to provide educational services to Whitworth University students at a campus located in Costa Rica and the purpose of the Foundation is to seek out and obtain deferred gifts to support Whitworth University. See Note 20 for summarized financial information related to these entities. All transactions and balances between the entities have been eliminated in the consolidated financial statements.

Net Asset Classification - For the purposes of financial reporting, the University classifies resources into two net asset categories pursuant to any donor-imposed restrictions and applicable law. Accordingly, the net assets of the University are classified in the accompanying financial statements in the categories that follow:

With Donor Restrictions - Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that will be met by action of the University and/or the passage of time. The University's net assets held in perpetuity are endowment funds invested to support scholarships and various academic programs.

Without Donor Restrictions - Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

The Board of Trustees has established policies that affect the presentation of board designations on net assets without donor restrictions. Bequests without donor restrictions under $250 are distributed to current unrestricted funds. By board approved policy, bequests without restrictions over $250 are added to the board designated endowment. The same methodology is applied to matured deferred gifts. The board has designated other funds for future capital projects and related initiatives and has delegated to management the authority to approve expenditures of these funds.

Revenues from sources other than contributions are generally reported as increases in net assets without donor restrictions. Expenses are reported as decreases in that category. Income earned on donor restricted funds is initially classified as net assets with donor restrictions and is reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions when expenses are incurred for their intended purpose.

---

Unconditional contributions, including promises to give, are recognized as revenues in the period received and are reported as increases in the appropriate categories of net assets in accordance with donor restrictions. Expirations of donor-imposed restrictions on net assets (i.e., the donor-stipulated purpose has been fulfilled and/or the stipulated time period has elapsed) are reported as reclassifications between the two classes of net assets. Conditional promises to give are not recognized until they become unconditional, that is, when the conditions on which they depend are substantially met. Contributions of property and equipment without donor stipulations concerning the use of such long-lived assets are reported as revenues in net assets without donor restrictions. Contributions of cash or other assets to be used to acquire property and equipment are reported as revenues in net assets with donor restrictions; the restrictions are considered to be met and released when the asset is placed in service, unless stipulated otherwise by the donor.

Gains and losses on investments are reflected in the net asset category of the corresponding assets.

Measure of Operations - Operating revenues and expenses relate primarily to educational programs and supporting activities, net assets released from donor restrictions to support operating expenditures, and transfers from board-designated and other non-operating funds to support current operating activities. Nonoperating activities consist primarily of investment returns in excess (less than) amounts made available for current support, via the University's spending policy, gifts for long-term purposes such as plant projects and endowment funds, and gains or losses on debt financing transactions.

Tuition and Fees Revenue - The University provides academic instruction toward baccalaureate degrees. Tuition and fee revenue is recognized in the fiscal year in which the academic programs are delivered. Institutional scholarships awarded to students reduce the amount of revenue recognized. In addition, students who adjust their course load or withdraw completely within the first eight weeks of the semester may receive a partial refund in accordance with the University's refund policy. Refunds issued reduce the amount of revenue recognized. Payments for services are due August 15th for Fall semester and January 15th for the Spring semester. Performance obligations for certain ancillary services are satisfied when the service is performed. The University applies the practical expedient as allowed for within the accounting standards and, therefore, does not disclose information about remaining performance obligations that have original expected durations of one year or less. All remaining performance obligations will be satisfied in connection with the completion of the 2020/2021 academic year. The University determines the transaction price based on standard charges for goods and services provided, reduced by discounts relating to institutional scholarships, both funded and unfunded, in accordance with the University's policies.

Auxiliary Revenue - The University also provides auxiliary services, such as residence and food services. Revenue from these services is recognized in the fiscal year in which the goods and services are provided. Students that withdraw from the University within the first eight weeks of the semester may receive a partial refund in accordance with the University's refund policy. Refunds issued reduce the amount of revenue recognized.

(in thousands of dollars)

Government Grants - Funds provided by the United States government under the Federal Perkins Loan Program are loaned to qualified students and may be reloaned after collections. These funds are ultimately refundable to the government and are included as liabilities in the statements of financial position. Revenues from government grants are considered to be conditional contributions as the transactions are non-reciprocal in nature and contain a right of return. As such, revenues from grants are recognized when the conditions are met, that is as allowable expenditures under such agreements are incurred, and reported as increases in net assets without donor restrictions.

The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economics Security (CARES) Act provided budgetary relief to higher education institutions. Congress set aside approximately $14.25 billion of the $30.75 billion allotted to the Education Stabilization Fund through the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF). Each institution received one grant comprised of two parts. Under the legislation, no less than 50% of the full grant was to be used for direct emergency aid to students. The remaining portion of the full grant was to be used by institutions to cover any costs associated with significant changes to the delivery of instruction due to the coronavirus. Institutions were given one calendar year from the date of award in their HEERF Grant Award Notification to complete the performance of their HEERF grant.

In fiscal year 2020, the University received approximately $1,400 of HEERF funding for the institutional component and approximately $1,400 for the student relief component. Institutions may recognize the institutional portion of the grant to the extent the grant was expended on student relief as of June 30, 2020. As of June 30, 2020, $712 of the student relief portion of the grant was disbursed to students and recognized as federal grants revenue, and accordingly student services expense (grants to students for unanticipated costs). $712 of the institutional portion of the grant was recognized as federal grants revenue. As restrictions were met in the same period, these grants were reported as changes in net assets without donor restrictions.

Deferred Revenue - Certain revenue related to summer courses and programs is deferred and recognized as revenue as the performance obligation is satisfied, that is, ratably over the duration of the summer course and program delivery. Students are generally billed for courses and programs prior to the start of the course or program.

Balance at June 30, 2019	Refunds Issued	Revenue recognized included in June 30, 2019 balance	Cash received in advance of performance	Balance at June 30, 2020
$ 1,582	$ -	$ (1,582)	$ 968	$ 968

Cash and Cash Equivalents - The University considers all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents. Cash and cash equivalents do not include investments the University has both the ability and intent to hold long-term. Certain cash held by the University is restricted for the Perkins Loan Fund.

Student Accounts Receivables - Student accounts receivables include amounts due to the University for tuition and fees. An allowance for doubtful accounts is recorded annually based on historical experience and management's evaluation of receivables at the end of each year. Bad debts are expensed when deemed uncollectible. Recoveries of student accounts previously written-off are recorded when received. Receivables are generally unsecured.

Deposits Held by Trustee - Deposits held by trustee include amounts restricted for construction and debt service as required by the trust indentures. The assets are comprised of cash equivalents and short-term investments.

Land, Buildings and Equipment - Land, buildings, improvements and equipment are recorded at cost at the date of acquisition or at fair value at the date of gift, less accumulated depreciation. Normal repair and maintenance expenses are charged to operations as incurred. The University capitalizes land, buildings, and equipment expenditures in excess of five thousand dollars. Title to land and buildings is principally in the name of the University. Buildings, improvements, and equipment are depreciated using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives:

Buildings	50 to 60 years
Building and other improvements	5 to 30 years
Equipment	5 to 8 years

Upon sale or retirement of property and equipment, the related cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and the resulting gains or losses are reflected in the statement of activities.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets - The University reviews long-lived assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of such assets may not be recoverable. Recoverability of these assets is determined by comparing the forecasted undiscounted net cash flows of the operation to which the assets relate to the carrying amount. If the operation is determined to be unable to recover the carrying amount of its assets, then assets are written down first, followed by other long-lived assets of the operation to fair value. Fair value is determined based on discounted cash flows or appraised values, depending on the nature of the assets. For the years ended June 30, 2020 and 2019, there were no impairment losses of significance recognized for long-lived assets.

Assets Held in Trust by Others - The University has been designated as beneficiary of several trusts managed by outside foundations. Some of these trusts generate income that is distributed to the University on a periodic basis. Those trusts are generally invested in marketable securities, real estate, or contracts collateralized by real estate.

Asset Retirement Obligations - The University recognizes the fair value of a liability for legal obligations associated with asset retirements in the period in which it is incurred, if a reasonable estimate of the fair value of the obligation can be made. When the liability is initially recorded, the cost of the retirement obligation is capitalized by increasing the carrying value of the related asset. Over time, the liability is accreted to its present value each year and the capitalized cost associated with the retirement obligation is depreciated over the useful life of the related asset. Upon settlement of the obligation, any difference between the cost to settle the asset retirement obligation and the liability recorded is recognized as a gain or loss in the statement of activities. The University reviews its estimates annually and adjusts the recorded liability as needed.

As of and for the Years Ended June 30, 2020 and 2019
(in thousands of dollars)

Substantially all of the University's asset retirement obligations relate to estimated costs to remove asbestos from campus facilities. The estimate of the losses that are probable for asbestos removal was calculated using the expected cash flow approach and based on an inventory of the University's long-lived assets combined with an estimate of the current market prices to remove the asbestos. The University utilized a credit-adjusted risk-free rate to discount the asset retirement obligations.

Changes in the accrual for asset retirement obligations during the years ended June 30, 2020 and 2019 are as follows:

	2020	2019
Balance, Beginning of the year	$ 1,060	$ 1,005
Abatements	-	(5)
Accretion expense	58	60
Balance, End of the year	$ 1,118	$ 1,060

Income Tax Status - The Internal Revenue Service has determined that both the University and Foundation are exempt from federal and state income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, the University and Foundation are not subject to federal income taxes except to the extent they generate income from certain activities not substantially related to their tax-exempt purpose (unrelated trade or business activities). Donations to the University and Foundation are tax deductible. Whitworth Costa Rica Limited is a taxable corporation for purposes of Costa Rican income tax law.

The University follows the accounting standards for contingencies in evaluating uncertain tax positions. This guidance prescribes recognition threshold principles for the financial statement recognition of tax positions taken or expected to be taken on a tax return that are not certain to be realized. No liability has been recognized by the University for uncertain tax positions as of June 30, 2020 and 2019. The University's tax returns are subject to review and examination by federal authorities.

Use of Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Fund-Raising and Advertising Expenses - Fund-raising expenses totaled $2,611 and $2,976 for the years ended June 30, 2020 and 2019, respectively. Advertising costs are expensed when incurred.

Functional Allocation of Expenses - The costs of providing the various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities and in Note 19. Accordingly, certain expenses have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefited.

Reclassifications - Certain amounts appearing in the 2019 financial statements have been reclassified to conform with the 2020 presentation. The reclassifications have no effect on the reported amounts of total net assets or changes in total net assets.

New Accounting Pronouncement Not Yet Effective - In February 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2016-02, Leases. ASU No. 2016-02 was issued to increase transparency and comparability among entities. Lessees will need to recognize nearly all lease transactions (other than leases that meet the definition of a short-term lease) on the statement of financial position as a lease liability and a right-of-use asset (as defined). ASU No. 2016-02 is now effective for fiscal year 2021 with the one year deferral that was provided by the FASB given the pandemic disruption. The University is assessing the impact this standard will have on its consolidated financial statements.

NOTE 2 - LIQUIDITY AND AVAILABILITY

The following table reflects the University's financial assets as of June 30, 2020 and 2019, reduced by amounts not available for general expenditures within one year. Financial assets are considered unavailable when illiquid or not convertible to cash within one year. Other financial assets that are excluded from this measure of liquidity include endowments and accumulated earnings restricted by donors or the University's Board of Trustees, bond reserves that can only be used for specific capital projects, assets held for or by others and annuity reserves.

	2020	2019
Financial assets
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 3,345	$ 4,232
Short-term investments	26,345	33,880
Contributions receivable	5,124	6,886
Accounts receivable from students and others	3,367	2,593
Student loan receivables	2,906	3,401
Long-term investments	144,565	143,843
Deposits held by trustee	20,008	2,903
Assets held in trust by others	28,096	21,701
Financial assets at June 30	233,756	219,438
Less those unavailable for general expenditure within one year:
Contributions receivable for construction projects and endowments	4,623	6,212
Short-term investments held for plant and endowment	9,233	13,110
Accounts receivable beyond one year	859	814
Student loan receivables restricted for financial aid purposes	2,906	3,401
Endowment assets restricted by donors, net of appropriation for next year	112,369	110,534
Endowment assets designated by the Board of Trustees, net of appropriation for next year	15,528	15,744
Bond proceeds and reserves restricted by use	20,008	2,903
Investments held for others connected to split-interest agreements	16,321	18,362
Assets held in trust by others	28,096	21,701
Financial assets not available for expenditure within one year	209,943	192,781
Financial assets available to meet cash needs for general purposes within one year	$ 23,813	$ 26,658

As of June 30, 2020, the University had liquid assets on hand to cover approximately 102 days of operating expenses. The University's practice is to structure its financial assets to be available as its general expenses, liabilities and obligations come due and targets a minimum of 60 days of operating expense coverage at any point in time.

Cash in excess of daily requirements is typically invested in short-term, liquid securities. The University also has an unsecured $10,000 line of credit with Wells Fargo Bank currently available through January 2, 2021. No funds have been drawn from this line since its inception. Borrowings under this line of credit bear interest at an annual rate of 2.50 percent above the Daily One Month LIBOR in effect from time to time. Interest is payable on the last day of each month.

NOTE 5 - CONTRIBUTIONS RECEIVABLE

Unconditional promises to give are included in the consolidated financial statements as contributions receivable and revenue of the appropriate net asset category. Receivables are recorded net of a discount to reflect the estimated present value of the expected future cash flows to be received. Contributions receivable include the following unconditional promises to give at June 30:

	2020	2019
Without donor restrictions - completed capital projects	$ 1,414	$ 653
Without donor restrictions - operating	501	673
With donor restrictions
Current scholarships, departmental programs and activities	873	672

Net contributions receivable	$ 5,124	$ 6,886
Amounts due in:
Within one year	$ 2,960
One to five years	2,802
	$ 5,762

Promises due in more than one year were discounted at rates ranging between 2% and 8% at June 30, 2020 and 2019. Promises due in less than one year were not discounted.

Amounts due from members of the Board of Trustees were approximately $3,245 and $4,080 as of June 30, 2020 and 2019, respectively. For the years ended June 30, 2020 and 2019, contributions (new pledges and cash gifts) from members of the Board of Trustees were approximately $1,390 and $3,170, respectively.

At June 30, 2020, the University had approximately $187 of conditional contributions outstanding on various grants, whereby, the conditions will be met upon incurring certain qualifying expenditures.

NOTE 6 - FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

Fair Value Hierarchy - Fair value is defined in the accounting guidance as the exchange price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the assets or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Under this guidance, a three-level hierarchy is used for fair value measurements which are based on the transparency of information, such as the pricing source, used in the valuation of an asset or liability as of the measurement date.

Financial instruments measured and reported at fair value are classified and disclosed in one of the following three categories.

- Level 1 - Inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the reporting entity can access at the measurement date.
- Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly. This includes quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability, or market-corroborated inputs.
- Level 3 - Inputs are unobservable for the asset or liability. Unobservable inputs reflect the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability (including assumptions about risk) using the best information available in the circumstances, which may include using the reporting entity's own data.

Valuation Techniques and Inputs

Level 1 - Level 1 assets include:

- > Investments in equity securities for which quoted prices are readily available.
- > Investments in certain fixed income securities (U.S. Treasury notes) as they trade with sufficient frequency and volume to enable the University to obtain pricing information on an ongoing basis.
- > Investments in mutual funds for which quoted prices are readily available.

Level 2 - Level 2 assets include:

- > Investments in certain fixed income securities (corporate bonds and notes) for which quoted prices are not readily available. The fair values are estimated using Level 2 inputs based on multiple sources of information, which may include market data and/or quoted market prices from either markets that are not active or are for the same or similar assets in active markets.

WHITWORTH UNIVERSITY

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
As of and for the Years Ended June 30, 2020 and 2019
(in thousands of dollars)

Level 3 - Level 3 assets include:

- > Assets held in trust by others for which quoted prices are not readily available. The fair values are estimated using an income approach by calculating the present value of the future distributions expected to be received based on a combination of Level 2 inputs (interest rates and yield curves) and significant unobservable inputs (entity specific estimates of cash flows). Since the University has an irrevocable right to receive the income earned from the trusts' assets, the fair value of the University's beneficial interest is estimated to approximate the fair value of the trusts' assets.

In certain cases, the inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, the level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement in its entirety falls has been determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety. The assessment of the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement in its entirety requires judgment and considers factors specific to the asset or liability.

Alternative investments in privately-held investment funds are measured at fair value using the net asset value per share (or its equivalent) of such investment funds as a practical expedient for fair value. The University has estimated the fair value of privately-held investment funds by using the net asset value provided by the investee as of June 30.

There have been no changes in the techniques and inputs used as of June 30, 2020 and 2019.

While the University believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different estimate of fair value at the reporting date.

The University uses the NAV as a practical expedient to determine fair value of all underlying investments which (a) do not have a readily determinable fair value; and (b) prepare their financial statements consistent with the measurement principles of an investment company or have the attributes of an investment company.

The following table lists the alternative investments in which NAV was utilized as the practical expedient for estimating fair value by major category as of June 30, 2020 and 2019:

Cash surrender value of life insurance policies	3,463	3,451
	$ 190,918	$ 180,626

Investments and deposits held by bond trustee are allocated as follows at June 30:

Short-term investments	$ 26,345	$ 33,880
Long-term investments	144,565	143,843
Deposits held by trustee (Note 11)	20,008	2,903
	$ 190,918	$ 180,626

Investments, in general, are subject to various risks, including credit, interest and overall market volatility risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements.

Through the University's investment in other investments, the University is indirectly involved in investment activities such as securities lending, trading in futures, forward contracts and other derivative products. Derivatives are used to adjust portfolio risk exposure. While these instruments may contain varying degrees of risk, the University's risk with respect to such transactions is limited to its respective capital balance in each investment. These interests have varying degrees of liquidity.

2012 Series Revenue Bonds - In February 2012, the University entered into a loan and security agreement with the Washington Higher Education Facilities Authority for the Authority to sell Series 2012 Revenue Bonds in the amount of $19,500 and loan the proceeds to the University. The bonds were issued for the purpose of remodeling and expanding the dining facilities, building a new campus recreation center, residence hall design and furniture, various infrastructure projects, and updating certain underground steam distribution lines.

Interest is payable on the Series 2012 bonds semi-annually on each October 1 and April 1 at rates ranging from 3.00% to 5.25%. Serial bonds are payable in amounts ranging from $320 to $345 on October 1, 2020 through October 1, 2022. Term bonds in the amounts of $2,000, $2,565, $3,310, and $8,675 are due on October 1, 2027, 2032, 2037, and 2046, respectively. The term bonds are subject to annual sinking fund payments on October 1, in the years 2023 to 2046, in amounts varying from $360 to $1,180.

2016 Series Revenue and Refunding Bonds - In December 2016, the University entered into a loan and security agreement with the Washington Higher Education Facilities Authority for the Authority to sell Series 2016A Nontaxable Revenue and Refunding Bonds in the amount of $47,660 and Series 2016B Taxable Refunding Revenue Bonds in the amount of $12,875 and loan the proceeds to the University. The bonds were issued for the purpose of refinancing the outstanding balance of the Series 2009 bonds previously issued by the Authority and lent to the University in November 2009 and for the construction of a new athletics administration building and other facility improvements for the University. With respect to the Series 2009 bonds, proceeds from the 2016A and 2016B Series bonds were placed in an escrow account held to defease the Series 2009 bonds. In October 2019, the funds in the escrow account were used to defease the Series 2009 bonds in full.

Interest is payable on the Series 2016 bonds semi-annually on each October 1 and April 1 at rates ranging from 2.31% to 5.00%. Serial bonds are payable in amounts ranging from $1,595 to $3,435 on October 1, 2020 through October 1, 2036. Term bonds schedule to mature on October 1, 2040, which was the same term of the refunded 2009 Series bonds, are subject to mandatory sinking fund redemptions in the amounts of $3,610, $3,795, $3,990, and $4,195 on October 1, 2037, 2038, 2039, and 2040, respectively. The University was not required to establish a reserve fund for the 2016 Series bonds.

2019 Series Revenue Bonds - In December 2019, the University entered into a loan and security agreement with the Washington Higher Education Facilities Authority for the Authority to sell Series 2019 Revenue Bonds in the amount $19,485 and loan the proceeds to the University. The bonds were issued for the purpose of design, construction, installation, and furnishing of a new Health Science Building.

Interest is payable on the Series 2019 bonds semi-annually on each October 1 and April 1 at a fixed rate of 4.00%. Term bonds scheduled to mature on October 1, 2049, are subject to mandatory annual sinking fund redemptions in amounts ranging from $1,475 on October 1, 2041 to $3,365 on October 1, 2049. The University was not required to establish a reserve fund for the 2019 Series bonds.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS As of and for the Years Ended June 30, 2020 and 2019 (in thousands of dollars)

The University has pledged its unrestricted revenues and property of the core campus located in Spokane, Washington (see Note 10) to the repayment of its obligations under the loan agreements. As a condition of the issuance of the bonds, the University has agreed to certain covenants for the protection of bond owners, including maintaining in each fiscal year income available for debt service at least equal to 1.00 times annual debt service for such fiscal year beginning after the date of issuance of the bonds and continuing through the fiscal year that is two fiscal years after the last of the new facilities is placed in service, and 1.25 times annual debt service in each other fiscal year. The University was in compliance with these debt covenants as of June 30, 2020 and 2019.

Deposits held by trustee (Note 7) at June 30, 2020 include debt service reserves related to the Series 2012 bonds and of unspent bond proceeds for construction related to the Series 2019 bonds.

The approximate principal and sinking fund payment requirements for all long-term debt for the five years subsequent to June 30, 2020 are:

Year Ended June 30	Principal
2021	$ 1,915
2022	1,985
2023	2,070
2024	2,165
2025	1,980

Certain costs related to the issuance of debt have been deferred and are being amortized over the term of the debt issue. Accumulated amortization approximated $215 and $106 at June 30, 2020 and 2019, respectively.

NOTE 12- SPLIT INTEREST AGREEMENTS

---

The University's investment portfolio contains split interest agreements held by the Foundation. Under a split interest agreement, a donor makes an initial gift to a trust or directly to the Foundation, in which the University has a beneficial interest but is not the sole beneficiary. The terms of some agreements do not allow donors to revoke their gifts. The time period covered by the agreement is expressed either as a specific number of years (or in perpetuity) or as the remaining life of an individual or individuals designated by the donor. The assets are invested and administered by the Foundation and distributions are made to a beneficiary or beneficiaries during the term of the agreement. At the end of the agreement's term, the remaining assets covered by the agreement are distributed to or retained by either the University or another beneficiary or beneficiaries.

Most of the Foundation's agreements consist of irrevocable charitable remainder trusts and charitable gift annuities. Donors may impose restrictions on the University's use of all or a portion of any assets received. The Foundation recognizes a liability for estimated distributions to beneficiaries under these annuity agreements. The Foundation used the applicable discount rates in effect at the time the agreements were received by the Foundation in calculating the present values.

The University maintains separate reserve funds adequate to meet future payments under its charitable gift annuity contracts as required by governing states' laws. The total amount held in separate reserve funds was $956 and $1,797, respectively, as of June 30, 2020 and 2019.

NOTE 13 - EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS

The University provides a defined contribution plan for the benefit of substantially all faculty and administration personnel. All costs relating to this plan are being funded currently. The University contributes a fixed percentage of each participant's salary to the plan. The University's contribution to this plan was approximately $2,564 and $2,447 in 2020 and 2019, respectively.

In addition to providing retirement benefits, the University pays a portion of the premiums for certain health care benefits provided to selected retired employees who reach retirement age while working for the University. Certain retired employees are required to contribute a portion of the cost of their medical insurance coverage. The University accrues for these benefits over the service lives of the employees rather than expense the cost of premiums as they are paid. The plan is unfunded, and the accrued postretirement benefit obligation is included in accrued payroll and related benefits on the statements of financial position.

The University measures postretirement plan obligations as of June 30.

The University is part of a Voluntary Employee Benefit Association (VEBA) in order to help fund the costs of healthcare for employees who have met certain eligibility requirements. The University contributed approximately $245 annually to the VEBA plan in 2020 and 2019.

The University expects to contribute approximately $45 to its postretirement plan in 2021. These payments have been estimated based on the same assumptions used to measure the University's benefit obligation. Benefit payments, which reflect expected future service, as appropriate, are expected to be paid as follows:

Year Ending June 30:
2021	90
2022	93
2023	93
2024	93
2025	93
2026 – 2030	443

The estimated interest cost, service cost, net loss and expected benefits paid for the year ended June 30, 2021, and the estimated benefit obligation at June 30, 2021 are as follows:

Change in projected benefit obligation
Benefit obligation at July 1, 2020	$ 2,008
Interest cost	62
Service cost	8
Actuarial gain	(77)
Expected benefits paid	(74)
	1,927
Projected benefit obligation at June 30, 2021	$ 1,927

The above assumptions and calculations are based on information as of June 30, 2020 and 2019, the measurement dates for the Plan. The accrued benefit cost represents the full obligation for the retirees and the current service cost for eligible employees at June 30, 2020. A 9% rate of increase in the per capita costs of covered health care benefits was initially assumed, decreasing 0.5% per year to an ultimate level of 5%. A discount rate of 3.25% and 4% was used to determine the accumulated postretirement benefit obligation for 2020 and 2019, respectively.

Increasing the assumed health care cost trend rate by one percentage point would increase the accumulated post-retirement benefit obligation as of June 30, 2020, to $2,154 and the increase the aggregate of the service and interest cost components of net periodic post-retirement benefit costs for 2020 to approximately $78.

It is reasonably possible that changes in these estimates could occur in the near term and that actual results could differ from these estimates and could have a material impact on the consolidated financial statements.

NOTE 14 - CREDIT QUALITY OF STUDENT LOANS RECEIVABLE

The University issues uncollateralized loans to students based on financial need. Student loans are funded through Federal government loan programs or institutional resources. Student loans receivable are carried at the amount of unpaid principal less an estimate for doubtful accounts. Allowances for doubtful accounts are established based on prior collection experience and current economic factors which, in management's judgment, could influence the ability of loan recipients to repay the amounts per the loan terms. At June 30, 2020 and 2019, student loans receivable represented approximately 0.8% and 1.0% of total assets.

The Extension Act amended section 461 of the Higher Education Act to end the University's authority to make new Perkins Loans after June 30, 2018. The University is not required to assign the outstanding Perkins Loans to the Department of Education or liquidate their Perkins Loan Revolving Funds due to the wind-down of the Perkins Loan Program. However, the University may choose to liquidate at any time in the future. As of June 30, 2020, the University continues to service the Perkins Loan Program.

At June 30, 2020 and 2019, student loans consisted of the following:

	2020	2019
Federal government programs	$ 2,250	$ 2,914
Institution programs	962	793
	3,212	3,707
Less allowance for doubtful accounts:
Beginning of year	(306)	(306)
Write-offs
End of year	(306)	(306)
Student loans receivable, net	$ 2,906	$ 3,401

Funds advanced by the Federal government of $2,340 and $3,214 at June 30, 2020 and 2019, respectively, are ultimately refundable to the government and are classified as liabilities in the statement of financial position. During the year ended June 30, 2020, the University returned to the government $802 in excess cash and recognized $64 in reimbursement for cancellations, which equally reduced the receivable for Perkins cancellations and the federal student loan funds liability.

After a student is no longer enrolled in an institution of higher education and after a grace period, interest is charged on student loans receivable and is recognized as it is charged. Student loans receivable through the loan programs are considered to be past due if a payment is not made within 30 days of the payment due date, at which time, late charges are charged and recognized. The Federal Perkins Loan Program receivables may be assigned to the U.S. Department of Education. Students may be granted a deferment, forbearance, or cancellation of their student loan receivable based on eligibility requirements defined by the U.S. Department of Education.

A student loan receivable is considered to be delinquent if any portion of the receivable balance is outstanding for more than 60 days after the billing date. At June 30, 2020 and 2019, the following amounts were past due under student loan programs:

	Amounts Past Due
	Less than 240 days	Less than 2 years	More than 2 years	Total
June 30,
2020	$ 73	$ 32	$ 49	$ 154

NOTE 15 - ENDOWMENTS

The University's endowment consists of approximately 400 individual funds established for a variety of purposes. Its endowment includes both donor-restricted endowment funds and funds designated by the governing board to function as endowments. As required by GAAP, net assets associated with endowment funds, including funds designated by the governing board to function as endowments, are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

Interpretation of Relevant Law - The University's governing board has interpreted the State of Washington enacted version of Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA) as allowing the University to appropriate for expenditure or accumulate so much of an endowment fund as the University determines is prudent for the uses, benefits, purposes and duration for which the endowment fund is established, subject to the intent of the donor as expressed in the gift instrument. Unless stated otherwise in the gift instrument, the assets in an endowment fund shall be donor-restricted assets until appropriated for expenditure by the Board of Trustees.

The remaining portion of the fund, which consists of earnings and gains/losses from the investment of such funds net of expenditures, is classified as net assets with donor restrictions until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the University in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by UPMIFA. In accordance with UPMIFA, the University considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

- (1) The duration and preservation of the endowment fund
- (2) The purposes of the University and the endowment fund
- (3) General economic conditions
- (4) The possible effect of inflation or deflation
- (5) The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments
- (6) Other resources of the University
- (7) The investment policy of the University

The following table summarizes endowment net asset composition by type of fund as of June 30, 2020:

Return Objectives and Risk Parameters - The University has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets. Endowment assets include those assets of donor-restricted funds that the University must hold in perpetuity or for a donor-specified period(s) as well as board-designated funds. Under this policy, as approved by the governing board, the endowment assets are invested in a manner that is intended to produce results that exceed the 4.5% spending rate plus the rate of inflation as measured by the Consumer Price Index (CPI) for urban consumers while assuming a moderate level of investment risk. The University expects its endowment funds, over time, to provide an average annual rate of approximately 7% to 9% annually. Actual returns in any year may vary from this amount.

Strategies Employed for Achieving Objectives - To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, the University relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). The University targets a diversified asset allocation that places a greater emphasis on equity-based investments to achieve its long-term return objectives within prudent risk constraints.

Spending Policy and How the Investment Objectives Relate to Spending Policy - The University has a policy of appropriating for distribution each year approximately 4.5% of its endowment fund's average fair value over the prior three years through the fiscal year-end preceding the fiscal year in which the distribution is planned. The University's spending policy follows a model that includes the Higher Education Price Index (HEPI) which requires annual adjustments based on changes in the costs of education. Actual spending in any given year may vary from the calculated appropriation based on factors such as market conditions, student eligibility, as well as spending policies of other organizations controlling outside trusts. In establishing this policy, the University considered the long-term expected return on its endowment. Accordingly, over the long term, the University expects the current spending policy to allow its endowment to grow at an average of 4% to 5% annually. This is consistent with the University's objective to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets held in perpetuity or for a specified term as well as to provide additional real growth through new gifts and investment return.

NOTE 16 - CONCENTRATIONS

---

Financial instruments that potentially subject the University to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash and cash equivalents, receivables and investments. Cash and cash equivalents in excess of federally insured limits are subject to the usual risks of balances in excess of those limits. The majority of the University's cash and cash equivalents are on deposit with a single bank. Investments are diversified in order to limit credit risk. Student notes and receivables are due from a variety of sources concentrated primarily in the northwestern United States. The University had significant outstanding pledges from one donor totaling approximately 18% and two donors totaling approximately 41% of contributions receivable, as of 2020 and 2019. During 2019, the University received significant gifts from one donor totaling 15% of contribution revenue. As of June 30, 2020, the University had an investment of $39,591, which was concentrated in one fund.

In addition, the University's students receive a substantial amount of support from state and federal student financial assistance programs which are subject to audit by governmental agencies. A significant reduction in the level of this support, if this were to occur, could have an adverse effect on the University's programs and activities.
