

It's not what you might expect, this place of fearless intellect and unconstrained commitment to Christ. It's a place where rules are few, but personal discipline is great. Where the answers aren't given, but conviction is found. Where chapel isn't required, but is often standing-room only. Where students chase falling pine cones and pursue a calling in all parts of the globe. Here, our community runs deep. Very deep. Which maybe isn't that surprising, after all.

WHITWORTH UNIVERSITY

Our new mark reflects the sense of discovery one encounters at Whitworth. The third vertical element creates a "U" within the "W" through its unexpected shift in direction. Bold in its simplicity and confident in its stature, we also see the Trinity and the towering pines of our campus. It even provides a modern nod to the torch that symbolizes Whitworth's unwavering spirit.

We are Whitworth.

Faculty. Staff. Students. Alums. Embodying the essence of Whitworth. We are dedicated to teaching, learning, questioning, growing. Pursuing our dreams. And deepening our faith. Steadfast in who we are, in a world that is constantly changing. We are Whitworth and unexpected starts with us.
