

HISTORY/SOCIAL STUDIES MAJOR, B.A. (44 credits)

SAMPLE FOUR-YEAR PLAN

History/Social Studies majors are encouraged to also declare a Secondary Education major. The plan below illustrates the suggested sequence for the History/Social Studies major, but it is vital to use this in conjunction with the sample Secondary Education plan. Your History advisor can provide a copy of this plan.

FIRST YEAR 12 credits

Fall

- HI 131 American History Before 1877 (3 credits)

Spring

- HI 182 American History Since 1877 (3 credits)
- HI 202 Roman Empire (3 credits)
- HI 210 Becoming a Historian (3 credits)

SOPHOMORE YEAR 15 credits

Fall

- One upper-division American history course (3 credits, HI 323 or HI 375W suggested)
- One upper-division history elective (3 credits)

Spring

- HI 102 The Pacific World (3 credits)
- One upper-division history elective (3 credits)
- One upper-division European history elective (3 credits)

JUNIOR YEAR 15 credits

Fall

- HI 384 Pacific Northwest History (3 credits)
- One upper-division history elective (3 credits)
- One upper-division course in non-Western history (3 credits)

Spring

- One upper-division European history elective (3 credits)
- EDU 350 Methods of Teaching in Middle and High School (3 credits)

SENIOR YEAR 2 credits

- EDU 453W Social Studies in Secondary School (2 credits)

One upper-division course must be a W course at the 400 level.

Again, remember to use this plan in conjunction with the sample Secondary Education plan.

Review the History Department Advising Guide and History Course Rotation Guide as you plan the major. Talk with your adviser at least once per semester about your academic plan.